THEREFORE

Discernment
Romans 12:1-2

THIS WEEK'S VERSE

Hebrews 5:14 (ESV)

But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil.

THIS WEEK'S PRAYER

Oh God, thank You for Your continual presence in my life. Thank You that You have saved me and You continue to mature me and teach me and use me for Your glory. Jesus, thank You that You purchased me and that because of Your sacrifice, the Spirit dwells in me and teaches and guides me. Oh God, help me to passionately desire Your word that I might become greater in my ability to discern truth
in this crazy world.

REFLECTION TIME

Read James 1:5-8.

How does this passage help the believer in trials?

Why do you think God places such a high value on wisdom? (See Proverbs 1:7; 3:13-18; Ephesians 5:15-17; Colossians 3:16; James 3:17)

What is the only reliable source of wisdom?

If we ask for wisdom in our prayer life, how will we know God's answer?

How would you define being double-minded?

How does being double-minded relate to idolatry?

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

DL Moody famously said, "If I could relive my life, I would devote my entire ministry reaching children for God."

There is nothing better than to watch a child grasp what Jesus did for them. When a kid learns a verse or finds a book of the Bible all by themselves and cries out, "I got it!", it's priceless. Children's Ministry can be crazy and loud. It can be frustrating and fun, but it very rarely feels fruitless. We seek to make learning about the Lord exciting and try to provide a loving atmosphere to demonstrate the Lord's love for them.

Miss Ruth, Miss Lori and all their amazing adult and teen helpers work together to teach the Word of God. Ruth and the Sunday School teachers are with the kids from 10 to 11 a.m. every Sunday. The children meet together to sing, enjoy an object lesson or puppet skit. They then divide into appropriate age groups for a bible lesson and learning. This is where the kids start to dig into the Word of God.

During second service, the kids are dismissed after worshipping with their families. Miss Lori and her volunteers begin with the song, "God Is Good To Me" and prayer. With music, object lessons, verse games and a bible story, we seek to engage the children. The current lessons are on Moses, Man of God. After the Bible time, they divide into two age groups for an activity such as a craft, crossword puzzle, bible game, etc. Our focus is for the children to learn about the Lord, come to know Him as their personal Savior and grow in Him.

If you would like to be a part of Children's Ministry, please contact Miss Lori @ 307-359-0522
